- 24.2.1(a) As provided in this subclause an employee whose ordinary hours may be more or less than 38 in any particular week of a work cycle, is to be paid their wages on the basis of an average of 38 ordinary hours so as to avoid fluctuating wage payments each week.
- 24.2.1(b) The ordinary hours of an employee may be arranged so that they are entitled to a day off, on a fixed day or rostered day basis, during each work cycle. It is in these circumstances that the averaging system would apply.
- 24.2.1(c) If the 38 hour week is to be implemented so as to give an employee a day off in each work cycle this would be achieved if, during a work cycle of 28 consecutive days (that is, over four consecutive weeks) the employee's ordinary hours were arranged on the basis that for three of the four weeks the employee worked 40 ordinary hours each week and in the fourth week the employ worked 32 ordinary hours. That is, they would work for eight ordinary hours each day, Monday to Friday inclusive for three weeks and eight ordinary hours on four week days only in the fourth week - a total of nineteen days during the work cycle.
- 24.2.1(d) In such a case the averaging system applies and the weekly wage rates for ordinary hours of work applicable to the employee will be the average weekly wage rates set out for the employee's classification in Schedule B of this Part of this award, and will be paid each week even though more or less than 38 hours are worked that week.
- 24.2.1(e) In effect, under the averaging system the employee accrues a "credit" each day they work actual ordinary hours in excess of the daily average, which would otherwise be seven hours and 36 minutes. This "credit" is carried forward so that in the week of the cycle that they work on only four days, their actual pay would be for an average of 38 ordinary hours even though, that week, they work a total of 32 ordinary hours.
- 24.2.1(f) Consequently, for each day an employee works eight ordinary hours the employee accrues a "credit" of 24 minutes (0.4 hours). The maximum "credit" the employee may accrue under this system is 0.4 hours on nineteen days; that is, a total of seven hours and 36 minutes.

24.2.1(g) As provided in 24.2.1(d), 24.2.1(e) and 24.2.1(f), an employee will not accrue a "credit" for each day the employee is absent from duty other than on annual leave, long service leave, public holiday, paid sick leave, workers' compensation, bereavement leave or jury service. When an employee is absent from duty because of annual leave, long service leave, public holidays, paid sick leave, workers' compensation, bereavement leave or jury service, their entitlement is determined in accordance with the appropriate award provision dealing with such entitlements.

24.3 Payment of wages on termination of employment

On termination of employment, wages due to an employee will be paid on the day of termination or forwarded to the employee by post on the next working day.

24.4 Absences from duty under an averaging system

Where an employee's ordinary hours in a week are greater or less than 38 hours and such employee's pay is averaged to avoid fluctuating wage payments, the following will apply:

- 24.4.1 An employee absent from duty in circumstances other than annual leave, long service leave, public holidays, paid sick leave, workers' compensation, bereavement leave, paid carer's leave, paid parental leave, paid training leave or jury service will, for each day so absent, lose average pay for that day calculated by dividing their average weekly wage rate by five.
- 24.4.2 An employee absent for part of a day (other than on annual leave, long service leave, public holidays, paid sick leave, workers' compensation, paid bereavement leave, paid carers' leave, paid parental leave, paid training leave in accordance with this clause or jury service will lose average pay for each hour or part thereof they are absent at an hourly rate calculated by dividing the employee's average daily pay rate by 7-6/10.
- 24.4.3 Credits do not accrue when an employee is absent from duty for a whole day in accordance with this subclause because the employee would not have worked ordinary hours that day in excess of seven hours and 36 minutes. Whenever this occurs, the employee will not be entitled to average pay for that week but will be reduced by the amount of the "credit" not accrued for each whole day during the work cycle involving the absence.

24.5 Alternative methods of payment

- 24.5.1 An employee who prior to 5 July 1982 was working less than 40 hours each week and who was paid by a method different from that provided for in 24.2, may continue to be paid by such method.
- 24.5.2 Where the employer and the majority of the employees concerned agree in accordance with 11.4, an alternative method of paying wages to that provided in 24.2 may be introduced.

24.6 Calculation of hourly rate

The hourly rates will be calculated by dividing the appropriate weekly rate by 38.

24.7 Payment by electronic funds transfer

All employees will be paid their wages by direct transfer into an employee's bank or other recognised financial institution account. Provided, that where employees are resident in isolated localities such employees may have their wages paid by cheque.

PART 6 - HOURS OF WORK, SHIFT WORK, MEAL BREAKS AND OVERTIME

25.1.1 Subject to the exceptions hereinafter provided, the ordinary hours of work will be an average of 38 per week to be worked on one of the following bases:

- 38 hours within a work cycle not exceeding seven consecutive days;
- 76 hours within a work cycle not exceeding fourteen consecutive days; or
- 114 hours within a work cycle not exceeding 21 consecutive days; or
- 152 hours within a work cycle not exceeding 28 consecutive days.

25.1.2 The ordinary hours of work prescribed in 25.1.1 may be worked on any day or all of the days of the week, Monday to Friday.

25.1.3(a) Provided further that work done prior to the spread of hours fixed in accordance with this subclause for which overtime rates are payable will be deemed for the purposes of this subclause to be part of the ordinary hours of work.

25.1.4 The ordinary hours of work prescribed herein will not exceed ten hours on any day.

25.1.4(a) In any arrangement of ordinary working hours where the ordinary working hours are to exceed eight on any day, the arrangement of hours will be subject to the agreement of the employer and the majority of employees in the plant, workshop, depot, section or sections concerned in accordance with 11.4.

25.1.5 Except as provided in 25.1.6, in cases where, by virtue of the arrangement of ordinary working hours an employee is entitled to a day off during the employee's work cycle, such employee will be advised by the employer at least four weeks in advance of the weekday the employee is to take off.

25.1.6 An employer may substitute the day an employee is to take off for another day in the case of a breakdown in machinery or a failure or shortage of electric power or to meet the requirements of the employer or some other emergency situation.

25.1.7 An individual employee, with the agreement of the employer, may substitute the day to be taken off for another day.

25.1.8 The employer and the majority of employees in the plant, workshop, depot, section or sections concerned may agree in accordance with 11.4 of this award that the ordinary working hours are to exceed eight on any day, thus enabling a weekday off to be taken more frequently than would otherwise apply.

25.1.9 Circumstances may arise where different methods of working a 38 hour week apply to various groups or sections of employees in the plant, workshop, depot or establishment concerned.

25.2 Ordinary hours of work - continuous shift workers

- 25.2.1 Continuous shiftwork means work carried on with consecutive shifts of employees throughout the 24 hours of each of at least six consecutive days without interruption except for breakdowns or meal breaks or due to unavoidable causes beyond the control of the employer.
- 25.2.2 Subject to 25.2.3 the ordinary hours of continuous shiftworkers are, at the discretion of the employer, to average 38 hours per week inclusive of meal breaks and must not exceed 152 hours in 28 consecutive days. Continuous shift workers are entitled to a twenty minute meal break on each shift which will be counted as time worked.
- 25.2.3 Except at the regular change-over of shifts, an employee will not be required to work more than one shift in each 24 hours.

25.3 Ordinary hours of work - non-continuous

- 25.3.1 Subject to 25.3.2, the ordinary hours of work for non- continuous shift workers are to be an average of 38 per week to be worked on one of the following bases:

 - 76 hours within a work cycle not exceeding fourteen consecutive days; or
 - 114 hours within a work cycle not exceeding 21 consecutive days; or
 - 152 hours within a work cycle not exceeding 28 consecutive days.
- 25.3.2 By agreement between the employer and the majority of employees concerned, a roster system may operate on the basis that the weekly average of 38 ordinary hours is allowed over a period which exceeds 28 consecutive days but does not exceed twelve months.
- 25.3.3 The ordinary hours of work are to be worked continuously, except for meal breaks, at the discretion of the employer.
- 25.3.4 Except at change-over of shifts an employee will not be required to work more than one shift in each 24 hours.

25.4 Methods of arranging ordinary working hours.

- 25.4.1 Subject to the employer's right to fix the daily hours of work for day workers from time to time within the spread of hours referred to in 25.1.3 and the employer's right to fix the commencing and finishing time of shifts from time to time, the arrangement of ordinary working hours is to be by agreement between the employer and the majority of employees in the enterprise or part of the enterprise concerned. This does not preclude the employer reaching agreement with individual employees about how their working hours are to be arranged.
- 25.4.2 Matters upon which agreement may be reached include:
- how the hours are to be averaged within a work cycle established in accordance with 25.2 and 25.3.
 - the duration of the work cycle for day workers
 - rosters which specify the starting and finishing times of working hours
 - a period of notice of a rostered day off which is less than four weeks
 - substitution of rostered days off

 - arrangements which allow for flexibility in relation to the taking of rostered days off
 - any arrangements of ordinary hours which exceed eight hours in any day

25.4.3 By agreement between an employer and the majority of employees in the enterprise or part of the enterprise concerned, twelve hour days or shifts may be introduced subject to:

- proper health monitoring procedures being introduced;
- suitable roster arrangements being made;
- proper supervision being provided;
- adequate breaks being provided;
- an adequate trial or review process being implemented through the consultative process in clause 12 - Consultative mechanisms and procedures.

25.5 Daylight saving

25.5.1 Where by reason of State legislation, summer time is prescribed as being in advance of the standard time in that State the length of any shift:

25.5.1(a) Commencing before the time prescribed by the relevant legislation for the commencement of a summer time period, and

25.5.1(b) Commencing on or before the time prescribed by such legislation for the termination of a summer time period, will be deemed to be the number of hours represented by the difference between the time recorded by the clock at the beginning of the shift and the time so recorded at the end of the shift. The time of the clock in each case is to be set to the time fixed by the relevant State legislation.

25.5.2 In this subclause the expressions standard time and summer time will bear the same meaning as are prescribed by the relevant State legislation.

CLAUSE 26. SPECIAL PROVISIONS FOR SHIFTWORKERS

OPDATE 01:04:2007 on and from

26.1 Definitions

For the purposes of this Award:

- Rostered shift means any shift of which the employee concerned has had at least 48 hours notice.
- Afternoon shift means any shift finishing after 6.00 p.m. and at or before midnight.
- Night shift means any shift finishing subsequent to midnight and at or before 8.00 a.m.

By agreement between the employer and the majority of employees concerned or in appropriate cases an individual employee, the span of hours over which shifts may be worked may be altered by up to one hour at either end of the span.

26.2 Afternoon and night shift allowances

26.2.1 An employee whilst on afternoon or night shift will be paid for such shift fifteen percent more than his or her ordinary rate.

26.2.2 An employee who works on an afternoon or night shift which does not continue for at least five successive afternoons or nights or for at least the number of ordinary hours allowed by the alternative arrangements in 25.2 or 25.3, will be paid for each such shift 50 percent for the first three hours thereof and 100 percent for the remaining hours thereof in addition to the employee's ordinary rate.

26.2.3 An employee who:

- during a period of engagement on shift, works night shift only; or
- remains on night shift for a longer period than four consecutive weeks; or
- works on a night shift which does not rotate or alternate with another shift or with day work so as to give the employee at least one-third of their working time off night shift in each shift cycle;

26.3 Rate for working on Saturday shifts

26.3.1 The minimum rate to be paid to a shift worker for work performed between midnight on Friday and midnight on Saturday will be time and one-half. This extra rate is in substitution for and not cumulative upon the shift premiums prescribed in 26.2.

26.3.2 Where shifts fall partly on a Saturday, that shift the major portion of which falls on a Saturday will be regarded as the Saturday shift.

26.4 Rate for working on Sunday and public holiday shifts

26.4.1 The rate at which continuous shift workers are to be paid for work on a rostered shift the major portion of which is performed on a Sunday or public holiday, is double time.

26.4.2 The rate at which shift workers on other than continuous work are to be paid for all time worked on a Sunday or public holiday is as follows:

- Sundays - at the rate of double time
- public holidays - at the rate of double time and one-half.

26.4.3 Where shifts commence between 11.00 p.m. and midnight on a Sunday or public holiday, the time so worked before midnight does not entitle the employee to the Sunday or public holiday rate for the shift. However, the time worked by an employee on a shift commencing before midnight on the day preceding a Sunday or public holiday and extending into the Sunday or public holiday will be regarded as time worked on the Sunday or public holiday.

26.4.4 Where shifts fall partly on a holiday, the shift which has the major portion falling on the public holiday will be regarded as the holiday shift.

26.4.5 By agreement between the employer and the majority of employees concerned, the shift which has the minor portion falling on the public holiday may be regarded as the holiday shift in lieu of the above.

26.4.6 The extra rates in this subclause are in substitution for and not cumulative upon the shift premiums prescribed in 26.2.

CLAUSE 27. MEAL BREAKS - ORDINARY HOURS OF DUTY

OPDATE 01:04:2007 on and from

27.1 An employee will not be required to work for more than five hours without a break for a meal except in the following circumstances:

27.1.1 In cases where canteen or other facilities are limited to the extent that meal breaks must be staggered and as a result it is not practicable for all employees to take a meal break within five hours, an employee will not be required to work for more than six hours without a break for a meal break.

- 27.1.2 By agreement between an employer and an employee or the majority of employees in an enterprise or part of an enterprise concerned, an employee or employees may be required to work in excess of five hours but not more than six hours at ordinary rates of pay without a meal break.

- 27.4 Subject to 27.1, an employee will work during meal breaks at ordinary rates of pay whenever instructed to do so for the purpose of making good breakdown of plant or upon routine maintenance of plant which can only be done while the plant is idle.
- 27.5 Except as provided in this subclause, and except where any alternative arrangement is entered into by agreement between the employer and employees concerned, time and one-half rates will be paid for all work done during meal hours and thereafter until a meal break is taken.
- 27.6 This clause will not apply to employees on continuous work shifts.

CLAUSE 28. OVERTIME

OPDATE 01:04:2007 on and from

28.1 Payment for working overtime

- 28.1.1 Except as provided for in 28.3.4, 28.3.5, 28.8 and 28.9 for all work done outside ordinary hours on any day or shift (as defined in 25.1, 25.2 and 25.3) the overtime rates of pay are time and one-half for the first three hours and double time thereafter until the completion of the overtime work. For continuous shift workers the rate for working overtime is double time.
- 28.1.2 For the purposes of this clause ordinary hours means the hours worked in an enterprise, fixed in accordance with clause 25 – Ordinary hours of work.
- 28.1.3 The hourly rate, when computing overtime, is to be determined by dividing the appropriate weekly rate by 38, even in cases when an employee works more than 38 ordinary hours in a week.

28.2 Requirement to work reasonable overtime

An employer may require any employee to work reasonable overtime at overtime rates and the employee will work overtime as required.

28.3 Rest period after overtime

- 28.3.1 When overtime work is necessary it must, wherever reasonably practicable, be so arranged that employees have at least ten consecutive hours off duty between the work of successive working days.
- 28.3.2 An employee (other than a casual employee) who works so much overtime between the termination of their ordinary work on one day and the commencement of their ordinary work on the next day that the employee has not had at least ten consecutive hours off duty between those times must, subject to this subclause, be released after completion of the overtime until the employee has had ten consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during such absence.

28.3.3 If on the instructions of the employer an employee resumes or continues work without having had the ten consecutive hours off duty the employee must be paid at double rates until the employee is released from duty for such period. The employee is then entitled to be absent until the employee has had ten consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during the absence.

28.3.4 By agreement between the employer and individual employee, the ten hour break provided for in this clause may be reduced to a period no less than eight hours.

28.3.5 The provisions of this subclause will apply in the case of shift workers as if eight hours were substituted for ten hours when overtime is worked:

- for the purpose of changing shift rosters; or
- where a shift worker does not report for duty and a day worker or a shift worker is required to replace the shift worker; or
- where a shift is worked by arrangement between the employees themselves.

28.4 Call back

An employee recalled to work overtime after leaving the employer's enterprise (whether notified before or after leaving the enterprise) is to be paid for a minimum of four hours work at the rate of time and one half for the first three hours and double time thereafter. There are a number of conditions which apply to this provision:

28.4.1 Where an employee is required to regularly hold themselves in readiness for a call back the employee will be paid for a minimum of three hours work at the appropriate overtime rate. This is subject to 28.5 which deals with the conditions for standing by.

28.4.2 If the employee is recalled on more than one occasion between the termination of their ordinary work on one day and the commencement of their ordinary work on the next ordinary working day the employee will be entitled to the three or four hour minimum overtime payment provided for in this subclause for each call back. However, in such circumstances, it is only the time which is actually worked during the previous call or calls which is to be taken into account when determining the overtime rate for subsequent calls.

28.4.3 Except in the case of unforeseen circumstances arising, an employee will not be required to work the full three or four hours as the case may be if the job the employee was recalled to perform is completed within a shorter period.

28.4.4 This subclause does not apply in cases where it is customary for an employee to return to the enterprise to perform a specific job outside the employee's ordinary working hours or where the overtime is continuous (subject to a meal break) with the commencement or completion of ordinary working time.

28.4.5 Overtime worked in the circumstances specified in this subclause is not to be regarded as overtime for the purpose of 28.3, when the actual time worked is less than three hours on the call back or on each call back.

28.5 Standing by

Subject to agreement between the employer and the affected employees, to the contrary, where an employee is required regularly to hold themselves in readiness to work after ordinary hours, the employee is to be paid standing by time at the employee's ordinary rate of pay for the time the employee is standing by.

28.6 Saturday work

A day worker required to work overtime on a Saturday will be afforded at least four hours work or paid for four hours at the rate of time and one half for the first three hours and double time thereafter, except where the overtime is continuous with overtime commenced on the previous day.

28.7 Sunday work

Employees required to work overtime on Sundays will be paid for a minimum of three hours work at double time. The double time is to be paid until the employee is relieved from duty.

28.8 Rest break

- 28.8.1 An employee working overtime must be allowed a rest period of twenty minutes without deduction of pay after each four hours of overtime worked if the employee is to continue work after the rest break.
- 28.8.2 Where a day worker is required to work overtime on a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday or on a rostered day off, the first rest break will be paid at the employee's ordinary rate of pay.
- 28.8.3 Where overtime is to be worked immediately after the completion of ordinary work on a day or shift and the period of overtime is to be more than one and one-half hours, an employee, before starting the overtime is entitled to a meal break of twenty minutes to be paid at ordinary rates.
- 28.8.4 An employer and employee may agree to any variation of this subclause to meet the circumstances of the work in hand provided that the employer is not required to make any payment in excess of or less than what would otherwise be required under this subclause.

28.9 Meal allowance

- 28.9.1 An employee is entitled to a meal allowance of $9.40 on each occasion that the employee is entitled to a rest break in accordance with 28.8, except in the following circumstances:
- if the employee is a day worker and was notified no later than the previous day that they would be required to work such overtime
 - if the employee is a shift worker and was notified no later than the previous day or previous rostered shift that they would be required to work such overtime
 - if the employee lives in the same locality as the enterprise and could reasonably return home for meals.
- 28.9.2 If an employee has provided a meal or meals on the basis that the employee has been given notice to work overtime and the employee is not required to work overtime or is required to work less than the amount advised, the employee will be paid the prescribed meal allowance for the meal or meals which the employee has provided but which are surplus.

28.10 Transport of employees

When an employee, after having worked overtime on a shift for which the employee has not been regularly rostered, finishes work at a time when reasonable means of transport are not available, the employer will provide the employee with a conveyance home, or pay the employee their current wage for the time reasonably occupied in reaching home.

Safety net adjustments

The rates of pay in this Award include the safety net adjustment payable under the 2019 State Wage Case and Minimum Standard for Remuneration. This safety net adjustment may be offset against any equivalent amount in rates of pay received by employees whose wages and conditions of employment are regulated by this Award which are above the wage rates prescribed in the Award. Such above Award payments include wages payable pursuant to enterprise agreements, currently operating enterprise flexibility agreements, award variations to give effect to enterprise agreements and over award arrangements. Absorption which is contrary to the terms of an agreement is not required.

Increases made under the existing or previous State Wage Case principles, previous General Reviews of Award Wages and the 2019 State Wage Case and Minimum Standard for Remuneration excepting those resulting from enterprise agreements or Award variations to give effect to enterprise agreements, are not to be used to offset safety net adjustments.

Economic incapacity applications

Any employer or group of employers bound by an Award may apply to, temporarily or otherwise, reduce, postpone and/or phase-in the application of any increase in labour costs flowing from the 2019 State Wage Case and Minimum Standard for Remuneration on the grounds of serious economic adversity. The merit of such application will be determined in light of the particular circumstances of each case and the impact on employment at the enterprise level. The increase in labour costs is a significant factor to be taken into account in assessing the merit of any application. A party may make such an application under s 31A of the South Australian Employment Tribunal Act 2014 (the SAET Act) in the form approved under rule 34 of the South Australian Employment Tribunal Rules 2017. It will then be a matter for the President to decide whether it should be dealt with by a Full Bench of SAET.

Any decision to temporarily postpone or reduce an increase will be subject to a further review, the date of which will be determined by SAET at the time it decides any application under this provision.

An individual employer making an application pursuant to this provision may make a request under s 55(2) of the SAET Act that the hearing of the matter be conducted in private and/or that some or all of the evidentiary material produced in the case not be available for inspection. Any such request will be determined by SAET in the circumstances of each case.
